

Absent or Negative Recognition	Absence of mentions in conspicuous contexts
	Across speech from high-incarceration (within or from) district representatives (aggregate)	In relevant policy discussion or forums (committees)
*Negative or Distancing Recognition	Recognition of counter-constituencies; framing of policy as opposed to carceral interests.
Hollow Recognition
	Rhetorical support for CJ that never ingrates carceral constituency perspective; Support for/action on policies reflecting “selective hearing”
Centering Recognition
	Explicit	Direct constituency naming (“my constituents behind the wall,” or “my constituent, who is in MCI-Norfolk”)
	Adjacent or Implicit	(“our brothers behind the wall;” “my constituents who drive 3 hours to see their loved ones in MCI-Norfolk”)
	Humanizing	Carceral citizens as moral agents, community members, rights-bearing (dignity, family ties, political voice, deserving of)
Potential cites of epistemic inclusion	As Knowers (Episteme?)	References to perspectives, political voice, direct demands; framing carceral political action (protest, direct participation) as legitimate political action; references to “hidden curriculum” (Weaver)
		References to legislator-initiated direct contact (prison visits)
Potential responsiveness	“Bridging” or Injecting CC’s as Knowers	Direct engagement with carceral constituent recorded or live testimony, reading/direct quoting
